

Toolbox Talk - Hybrid Event

Inspectors from the Fairbanks Flight Standards Office will focus on the use of the online Airworthiness Certification (AWC) portal to request a ferry permit and present a refresher on the documentation of inspections and repairs. Additionally, the University of Alaska Fairbanks will present to participants post season inspection/maintenance techniques for aircraft floats to ensure your equipment is ready for service the following year.

A hybrid event is one that will also be open for in person attendance.

This event will be held at the Fairbanks Flight Standards Office, 4419 Airport Way, Fairbanks, AK 99709
