This a Spring Safety Meeting of the Iowa Aerial Applicators Association (IAAA). The IAAA meeting begins at 0800 and the Federal Aviation Administration will present "5 Common Factors in Agricultural Accidents" at 1000. The most recent aerial applicator accidents in Iowa will be reviewed and the top five common factors along with mitigation strategies will be discussed. Inspectors from the Des Moines FSDO will be available to answer your questions.

Directions: The Adventureland Convention Center is located in Altoona, Iowa, just south of Interstate 80.

A message from the National FAASTeam Manager

Over 136,600 pilots earned WINGS credits last year. Will you, this year?
