

Loss of Control: A Review of the JFK, Jr. Accident (Click link inside for a video trailer of event)

Video Trailer In 1999, John F. Kennedy, Jr. got in the left seat of his new plane with his wife and her sister for a trip to a wedding. They never made it. We'll unravel the causes and factors of this "loss of control" accident while learning of other loss of control factors we can avoid.

Directions: Take US 65 South from Springfield, then US 65 Bus N to Opportunity Ave, then M Graham Clark Dr.
