

FAASTeam presents:

NAFI - How to Create Effective Flight Simulation Scenarios To Help Keep Pilots Alive

Do you struggle with creating effective flight simulation scenarios to supplement real-world training? In this presentation, you'll discover strategies that anyone can use to design customized scenarios for each of your pilots in training when using an aviation training device. You will develop an understanding of the best practices for using an instructor operating station and learn how to set up scenarios so your learners can build proficiency, confidence, and become safer pilots.
