

NAFI Summit Encore Recorded Presentation - Instructor or Educator - What is the Difference?

Event Details

Instructing instructors has more immediate yet long-term significance in aviation than in many other professions. But we are frequently using pilots instead of educators* in this situation. Although there are many disparate piecemeal attempts to apply educator techniques to instructing, I still do not know after 34 years what parts of the FAA's FOI I can effectively apply.

The Fundamentals Of Instruction is well covered by the FAA, NAFI, SAFE, FAA, EAA, AOPA... including:

- mechanics of teaching
- physiology
- psychology
- practical effects of "being humans"

...but applying (stealing) more subtle teaching techniques from professional educators seems to be frustratingly missing.
