

IMC Clubs - When is it time to move to Plan B?

This month we will look at a flight that started out in control and well planned. And then, little by little, problems came up. At what point would each of us have said, "I need a new plan"?

Directions: I find it easiest to get myself to the intersection of 115th and Nall, and then go east, one short block to Ash. Turn right onto Ash, and then take the second right turn into the parking garage. If you travel up to the fourth level, there is a walkway that enters into Suite 300.
