

k-stateatsalina

AVIATION

Inspection Authorization Renewal Seminar

Friday, March 13, 2009, 8:00am – 5:30pm

College Center Conference Room

2310 Centennial Road, Salina, KS 67401

Schedule

- 7:30-8:00 Registration, visit, network, meet vendors, coffee and breakfast snacks
- 8:00-8:30 K-State welcome – greetings, announcements and instructor introductions
- 8:30-9:30 Human Factors affecting the aviation maintenance professional
- 9:30-10:15 Aircraft engine oils and their proper uses
- 10:15-10:30 Break – visit with vendors, coffee & water, make lunch plans
- 10:30-11:15 Maintenance related aircraft accidents and chain of event links
- 11:15-12:00 NCATT certification for the aviation maintenance professional
- 12:00-12:30 FAA awards, updates and current issues - ICT FSDO Inspector
- 12:30-1:30 Lunch - cafeteria in the building or several close restaurants
- 1:30-2:30 Engine ignition components and maintenance
- 2:30-3:15 Light Sport Aircraft – regulations, maintenance, repair and alterations
- 3:15-3:30 Break – visit with vendors, coffee & water
- 3:30-4:15 Avionics trends and updates
- 4:15-5:00 Aircraft annual inspection highlights
- 5:00-5:30 FAA final comments – ICT FSDO Inspector

To reserve a seat for this free FAA Approved training event e-mail atsmith@ksu.edu or call (785) 826-2682
Fly-ins are welcome; tell the Salina Tower you are parking on the K-State ramp; it is a short walk to the seminar.