

FAASTeam presents:

National Weather Service's Aviation Weather Seminar

National Weather Service (NWS) personnel, Mike Smith Enterprises, and the Aviation Industry of Wichita, KS would like to invite you to our first annual seminar on aviation weather. The seminar is open to all aviation enthusiasts. Please pre-register if possible: <https://sites.google.com/site/nwsaviationweatherseminar/> or contact Chance Hayes.

Directions: The WATC Auditorium is located between the north and south wings. Enter the door by the "Student Center" sign which is easier to see from the north parking area.

A message from the National FAASTeam Manager

Over 136,600 pilots earned WINGS credits last year. Will you, this year?

Sign up for the FAA's safety services at www.FAASafety.gov!
