

Third Thursday Safety Event

The Airworthiness FAASTeam Program Manager from the Louisville Flight Standards District Office will give a presentation on what to expect from the mechanic or maintenance organization working on your aircraft. We will discuss what your responsibilities as an aircraft Owner/Operator are. We will also discuss what your mechanic is required to do and what they should do.

Directions: The Aero Club is located on the airport, Bowman Field, Louisville KY. As you enter the facility take the first door on your left into the conference room.

A message from the National FAASTeam Manager
