

Nashville IMC Club Monthly Meeting

The roles are reversed, and you're a controller trying to help a pilot in need. The pilot's plight puts you in the hot seat, where you see several options--none of which are found anywhere in the controller's manual. Do you play by the book, or give the pilot what he really needs?

Directions: Meeting will be held at the Gassaway Building at Nashville International Airport, Second Floor. Please use map link to show location.
