

Tools to Keep Us Safe - Doug Stewart

During this two hour live event, Doug Stewart will discuss Risk Management, and the Tools we use to measure risk to keep pilots safe. Risk management can be somewhat subjective depending on the pilots risk tolerances and abilities. The Risk vs Reward Equation might keep one pilot from flying in anything other than benign skies, while another may eagerly launch into menacing skies. Doug will present us tools to use to calculate potential risk, and make an appropriate go or no-go decision.

From the South: Proceed past the Albany Airport entrance following Albany Shaker Road, then turn right onto Airport Park Blvd, then turn right again onto Old Albany Shaker, after 600 feet turn left to follow Albany Airport County Road, then right into the parking lot with signage for The hanger at 743, Home of the Warbird Factory.
