

Risk Management and Safety Promotion

This two hour event, coordinated by the Albany FAASTeam and presented by FAASTeam Representative, Ningyun Cai. It will contain information of interest to all pilots.

During this months Seminar, we will present an interesting discussion on the various ways a pilot can assess or measure risk. We will go over how to make decisions to manage this risk by either eliminating it or mitigating it the best way possible. We will also discuss how to promote safety with other aviators and with the public.

This two hour event will be held at Av Flight, located at the southeast side of the airport below the beacon and tower. This seminar will be held in the 1st floor Conference Room at Av Flight at the Plattsburgh Airport. Street address: 1 Alabama Street, Plattsburgh, NY. No landing and facility fees for aircraft <12,500lb.
