

Human Factors and the WINGS Program

This two hour event, coordinated by the Albany FAASTeam and presented by FAASTeam Representative, Ningyun Cai. It will contain information of interest to all pilots.

During this months Seminar, we will present an interesting discussion about how Human Factors and Safety Culture effects pilots, and what we can do to midigate negetive tendancies and promote possitive interactions to incourage learning and safety. We will also discuss the benifits of the WINGS Program and how continuing education improves safety for pilots.

This two hour event will be held at Av Flight, located at the southeast side of the airport below the beacon and tower. This seminar will be held in the 1st floor Conference Room at Av Flight at the Plattburgh Airport. Street address: 1 Alabama Street, Plattburgh, NY. No landing and facility fees for aircraft <12,500lb.
