

1st Annual Maryland Regional Festival of Flight

Spring Into Safety!

Saturday, May 14

8:00 AM - 5:00 PM

Easton Airport (ESN) 29137 Newnam Road, Unit 1 Easton, MD

The Festival will feature information sessions presented by FAAST as well as aviation vendors, spatial disorientation demonstrations and the unveiling of the new Explore MD by Air program sponsored by the Maryland Airport Managers Association (MAMA).

Bring the family and spend the day!

FAA Safety Seminars presented by FAAST team members from Maryland:

- 9:00 AM - "Understanding Field Approvals, STC and 337 Forms"
Presented by Dave Garey, Principal Maintenance Inspector, Baltimore FSDO
- 10:00 AM - "Approach and Landing" Presented by Ronald Levy, ATP, CFI
- 11:00 AM - "The New NOTAMS, What You Need To Know"
Presented by Gary L. Prock, AIM NOTAM Group, Senior Policy and Procedure Specialist
- 12:00 PM - Lunch and MAMA's Rollout of the Explore MD by Air Program
- 1:00 PM - "The FAASTeam & WINGS, What's In It For You" Presented by Michael Bevan, CFI
- 2:00 PM - "Pilot Fatigue, What You Don't Know May Kill You"
Presented by Colonel Anthony Rizzo, USAF Flight Surgeon
- 3:00PM - "Experimental & Light Sport - A How To Guide"
Presented by Andrew Riel, CFI and Steve Torzone, CFI

Pilots/owners who wish to participate in the Airworthiness Amnesty Program need to bring their aircraft log books. Don't forget to register for WINGS credit!

There will also be:

- 8:00 AM breakfast hosted by the Maryland Airport Managers Association (MAMA)
- Tower Tours: Conducted hourly - sign up at the registration desk, first come first served.
- Spatial Disorientation demonstrations using the Barany chair
- An Airworthiness Amnesty event
- Display by EA Region Rwy Safety Office
- Exhibitors displaying aircraft including both new planes and war birds
- 25 cent fuel discount at Easton Jet Center for fly-ins

For more information on the event and fly-in instructions, check our website: www.mdrff.org or email your question to: questions@mdrff.org

Exhibitors:

