

Performing a Preflight From a Technicians Perspective

In this seminar we'll discuss the importance of performing a thorough pre-flight Inspection in small GA aircraft. Discussions will include pilot responsibilities, aircraft logbooks, what to look for, and possibly listen for when conducting an inspection.

EAA Chapter 36 and the CAP Squadron will manage invitations to this presentation.

This event is limited to Members of EAA Chapter 36 and the CAP Composite Squadron. No SPANS will be sent.

This presentation will be held in the Hagerstown, MD Aviation Museum Conference Room.
