

Our mission is clear: to provide the safest, most efficient aerospace system in the world.

WEST VIRGINIA MAINTENANCE SYMPOSIUM SCHEDULE Charleston W.V. FSDO / EA-09

Doors will open @ 7:15 am *****

| Time | Presentation Title | Hours | Instructor / Affiliation |
|--------------|---|-------|---|
| 8 am | Who needs A&P's when you have U-Tube videos | 1 | Tim Gauntt / Hartzell Aero |
| 9 am | Spark Plug Design and Maintenance | 1 | Jeff Schans / Tempest Aero Group |
| 10 am | Aircraft Battery Airworthiness | 1 | Chris Holder / Concorde Battery Corp. |
| 11am | Electroair Electronic Ignitions  Zoom Meeting * | 1 | Mike Kobylk / Electroair |
| 12pm to 1 pm | Food provided by Marshall University Aviation Maintenance Technology / proceed to Hangar Floor | | Please let us say "Thank you" to Marshall University Aviation Maintenance |
| 1 pm | Fundamental Electrical Systems | 1 | Tim Gauntt / Hartzell Aero |
| 2 pm | Cirrus Airframe Parachute System (CAPS) – ballistics | 1 | John Goebel / Cirrus Air safety Invest |
| 3 pm | Doctoring Maintenance / Human Factors & Behavior | 1 | Todd Landacre / FAA AW - FAAST |
| 4 pm | Fundamental Turbocharging Systems | 1 | Tim Gauntt / Hartzell Aero |

March 21, 2026, Training Certificate and
8 Hour IA Refresher Course Certificate
Acceptance Number: EA09#####

Name: _____

Please Print

Signature: _____

Address: _____

Managing FSDO _____