

FAA Safety Team and the Farmingdale FSDO presents:

Mid Island Air Service Monthly Safety Seminar

You are invited to an exclusive safety workshop on A DAY IN THE LIFE OF AN AIRLINE PILOT - Utilizing Trans-Oceanic Flight Planning Strategies in General Aviation given by featured speaker Adam Rosenberg, FAA DPE, Check Pilot, Major Airline Airbus Captain, 7 type ratings, 33 yrs & over 20,000 hours Total Time.

At this two hour informative briefing we will discuss flying like the Pros and being a safer, more confident & competent pilot by learning Trans-Oceanic Flight Planning strategies, what goes into this planning, and how this can help the general aviation pilot increase your margin of safety. Many aspects of trans-oceanic flight will be discussed from dispatch, flight planning, oceanic track navigation, communications, abnormal, emergencies and diversion strategies.

Beyond just a day in the life of an airline pilot, Adam will introduce multiple scenarios and provide extensive training on how general aviation pilots can go beyond what is required by regulations and utilize similar procedures, techniques and strategies when flight planning cross country trips under visual or instrument flight rules. After attending this
