

NAFI 2025 - Teaching Risk Mitigation - At the PPC Education Center

Many checkride applicants struggle to effectively recognize and manage risks associated with external pressures. Too often, their default response is an overly simplistic "I guess we won't fly," which reflects a lack of preparation for more nuanced, real-world decision-making. External pressures—such as expectations from passengers, time constraints, or family waiting at the destination—require thoughtful assessment and practical mitigation strategies.

PRESENTED DURING THE EAA AIRVENTURE FLY-IN. NO FEE FOR THE NAFI PRESENTATIONS, BUT AN ENTRANCE FEE IS REQUIRED BY EAA AIRVENTURE TO ENTER THE GROUNDS.
