

Signs, Signs...Knowing What They Mean Can Save Your Life!

Don't miss this new presentation on airport signage! There are so many different signs used at airports; it's hard to remember the meaning of them all. Attend this informative briefing and refresh your skills on airport signage - help reduce the number of pilot surface deviations and familiarize yourself with the latest airport signage! Featured speaker is Vince Cimino, the FAA Eastern Region Runway Safety Manager.

Directions: Seminar will be held in 1st floor FBO room. Please preregister.

A message from the National FAASTeam Manager

Over 136,600 pilots earned WINGS credits last year. Will you, this year?
