

What About That ADS-B Stuff for My Aircraft

Bart Ritorto and Don Ginsberg from Ocean Aire Avionics will provide a presentation on the many facets of ADS-B for aircraft owners, pilots, and mechanics. For more information, register for this event. By the time this seminar concludes you will know what ADS-B is and how it works. If you need it for your aircraft, you will find out about equipment choices, costs, what is meant by ADS-B "In" and "Out", and other useful information

Directions: This presentation will be held on the 2nd floor at the Fixed Base Operator (FBO) facility.
