

Aviation Weather Briefing With The National Weather Service (NWS)

Join us as Meteorologist aviation focal point, Ryan Rogers, from the NWS Wakefield Weather Forecast Office discusses aviation weather and the NWS role. Flight in the proximity of some environmental hazards may lead to serious or catastrophic accidents. Avoidance strategies reduce the risk by lowering the accident likelihood. This requires pilots to plan, exercise patience, remain flexible, and be creative.

20th Annual Wings Wheels and Keels event at Hummel Airport. From Virginia Route 3 follow event staff directions to parking. This seminar will be conducted at ICS Services LLC., hangar located at 136 Industrial Drive, Topping, VA .
