

Rochester Air Center Monthly Open Forum

Attend this exclusive safety briefing where featured speaker Jim Martin, a FAA Safety Team Representative & former experimental test pilot, will reveal the things that your flight instructor never told you about! Maximize your safety potential at this informative briefing specifically designed to sharpen your understanding of stalls, spins, aerodynamics, performance calculations and how the Pilot's Operating Handbook is created! Feel free to call Jim with your favorite topic - he'll answer your questions. Arrive early and enjoy a light dinner courtesy of the Rochester Air Center! Click on the link below to view the details and register today!

Directions: From I-390, take the Scottsville Road exit Westbound approximately 3 miles to the RAC Hangar. Briefing will be in the Main Conference Room.
