

Weather Wisdom- Real Tools For Safe Flight!

Weather was a cause or contributing factor in 35% of fatal aviation accidents [Source]Despite the flood of information available on web-based devices, pilots are not creating a meaningful weather risk picture Join Scott Dennstaedt, Dave St. George and Russ Still and learn techniques to curate the chaos :)

Directions: We have endless weather information available online, but what does it all mean to your proposed flight? Join us and learn reliable techniques and tools for every pilot (and aviation educator).

Our panel of CFIs include a NWS meteorologist/CFII, a DPE and Gold Seal instructor with years of real-world weather experience.
