

Rochester FSDO FAAS Team presents:

Syracuse Safety Stand Down 2023

Syracuse Safety Stand Down is a gathering of aviation safety speakers:

We have a variety of speakers and topics for you. Please feel welcome to attend any single talk or stay for the whole day (lunch is served).

Syracuse Safety Stand Down is a long-time tradition (we missed last year due to the KSYR terminal construction). Please grab a flying buddy and join us Saturday, March 25th.

David St. George's Presentation

"Simple changes to your ordinary procedures"

Simple changes in preparation and procedures can significantly reduce your chance of an accident in these areas. A pilot should tune up their vigilance when in this phase of flight and always leave a performance margin and an escape route to assure safety.

David St. George is a 13X Master Flight Instructor and has been an FAA DPE for over 25 years.

Gene Benson's Presentation

"Just this once"

Our humanness often pushes us to engage in "just this once" activities and then reinforces successful outcomes with an increased willingness to repeat the practice.

This program examines how we are often led down the dangerous "just this once" path, but
