

Canandaigua Airport Aviation Safety Event

"Just This Once"

Our humanness often pushes us to engage in "just this once" activities and then reinforces successful outcomes with an increased willingness to repeat the practice.

This program examines how we are often led down the dangerous "just this once" path, but more importantly provides some practical ways to avoid this trap.

Directions: Held at the Canandaigua Airport, follow the signs to Dennis Christiano's T-hangar.
