

Update Your Flight Bag!

At this exclusive briefing representatives from the RDU Automated Flight Service Station (AFSS) will present a briefing on the NEW interactive pilot web portal briefing. This service allows the briefer and pilot to view radar images, weather charts and more, together through a web interface. Also, Jim "JR" Rary is back by popular demand to discuss Area Navigation (RNAV) approach tips from the RDU ATC perspective. Then, Tom Freeman from NCDOT Aviation will present a seminar titled Pilot / Aircraft Performance. Click on the link below to see all the details and reserve your seat TODAY!

Directions: Please refer to the "Additional Seminar Information" for directions. Note: If using automobile GPS, verify you are being directed to the RDU Airport in Morrisville, NC.
