

Winter Flying Hazards: Ice and Fog

This exciting and interesting presentation will help aviators develop their "Airman's Eye" for winter weather, thereby improving safety, confidence and self-reliance before and during flight. This seminar will be presented by two retired Navy Meteorologists with over 30 years of experience reporting and forecasting aviation weather for naval aviators. Please click on the link below to register for this event today!

Directions: Please see map link for directions. Facility is 1/2 mile from Airport and transportation from the airport to the Chamber of Commerce Building can be arranged. See contact information below.
