

FAASTeam presents:

The Top Five EAB Building Mistakes

Lisa Turner is an EAA Technical Counselor, flight advisor, and former AB-DAR. A Private Pilot and A&P, Lisa retired as an aerospace manufacturing engineer working on Boeing and Lockheed Martin aircraft components to help run her husband's business restoring antique aircraft at KRHP, in Andrews, North Carolina.

Lisa built a Pulsar, a Kolb Mark III, and half of a Rotorway Exec helicopter.

A five-time book author, Lisa is best known for her Pulsar story, called Dream Take Flight. Her aim is to inspire others to build and fly. Lisa writes the EAA's Sport Aviation Airworthy column.
