

Surviving Your Most Vulnerable Flying Hours

This seminar tackles how to avoid becoming a statistic. We'll discuss practical strategies for building sound judgment, developing safe flying habits, managing risk without direct instructor supervision, and recognizing when overconfidence is creeping in. Whether you just passed a checkride or are more experienced and want to stay sharp, this session will give you tools to navigate this critical phase safely.

The Conference Room is to the right of the FBO desk as you enter the lobby area.
