CAPE FEAR GENERAL AVIATION DAY

ILM Aerospace Foundation

Supporting Women in Aviation

Saturday, November 7, 2026 | 8 am – 1 pm

Wilmington International Airport – Public Safety Office/Rescue Base | 1851 Dolan Drive

Calling all pilots, mechanics, and air traffic controllers! Fly-in or drive-in and enjoy net-working, educational presentations that qualify for WINGS credit, static displays, and a silent auction.

8:00-9:00 am	Mix and Mingle /Static Display/ Donuts and Coffee / Flag Ceremony-CAP
9:00-9:50 am	Stay in Control: Recognizing the Warning Signs Before it's too Late -Preventing Loss of Control for VFR and IFR Pilots - Egie Blackman, Lead CFI and CFII, University of Mt. Olive Flight School
10:00-10:50 am	Well, That Wasn't in the Flight Plan! - Elayne Humphrey, CFI & CFII, Cape Fear Aviation Flight Training
11:00-11:50 am	3 Steps to Mitigating Risk - Annika Thomason, CFI, Cape Fear Coastal Aviation
12:00-1:00 pm	Lunch/ILM Update/Silent Auction Wrap Up

ATCT Tour - 12:30 pm - Limited to first 15 people to register by email:

Tour leaves from and returns to Public Safety/Rescue Base

Proceeds from the silent auction and donations will benefit the ILM Aerospace Foundation, a non-profit which is supporting aviation education.

Rain or shine! This event is offered at no cost. Learn more at: ilmasf.com/events