FAASTeam presents:

Goldsboro Wayne Aviation Association (GWAA) Safety Meeting

This interactive session introduces pilots to a curated set of educational and inspirational resources that support safer, more proficient flying. Participants explore aviation books, podcasts, films, museums, air shows, professional organizations, and historic figures whose lessons apply directly to modern flight operations. A team-based review format reinforces the material and encourages discussion among pilots of all experience levels.

This event is being hosted by the Goldsboro Wayne Aviation Association (GWAA). The event will begin with food at 6:00 PM in the break room. After some food and fellowship, we will transition to a classroom where the presentation and discussion will begin after a short business session.
