

FAASTeam presents:

Are You Safe to Fly?

Airman medical certification is one factor that we should all be concerned with. In today's more flexible medical certification system the airmen should know "how the system works." Meet AME Dr. Ross for a completely open and interactive presentation. Be sure to bring your questions!

Directions: See Map Link to the First Floor of the Old Terminal Building

A message from the National FAASTeam Manager

Over 136,600 pilots earned WINGS credits last year. Will you, this year?
