FAA Safety Team presents:

EAA IMC Club Meeting - Negotiating Chicago and Charting Changes

The EAA IMC Club provides a "hangar flying" experience organized around instrument flight, in order to promote safety, education, and proficiency.

This month, we'll discuss a scenario that involves multiple ways to get around the complex Chicago airspace. How can you balance competing safety issues? We'll also discuss updates to the Chart Users Guide and some lesser-known symbols.

Bring your EFB, your experience, and your questions, and be ready to participate.

All are welcome. You do not need to be an EAA member or rated instrument pilot to attend.

If arriving by aircraft: Park at the main ramp near the south-east end. The meeting is in the tower building, second to left of the Midfield Cafe.

By car: parking lot near tower building.
