

Expand your enthusiasm of aviation

If you're not a member of a local EAA chapter, we would like to invite you to see what Chapter 1310 in East Windsor, Connecticut has to offer.

We're a chapter that emphasizes the informal grass-roots environment the way flying used to be like, while keeping members informed on current situations and techniques.

Among our recent activities were a sponsored group trip to the Red Bull Air Races and an aircraft fabric covering workshop where members got hands-on experience on the technique of working with the covering material on actual aircraft parts.

Visitors are always welcome to our meeting and events.
