

Complacency - The Stealthy Stalker

Complacency is a major factor in aircraft accidents and incidents. It is bred in the fertile ground of repetitiveness and boredom. So what can we do to prevent it? How do we keep from setting a complacency trap for ourselves? Join us for an evening of camaraderie and learning. Flight instructors are encouraged to bring their students.

Directions: This event is being held in the Burlington International Airport Terminal Building, 2nd floor, south end.
