"New Flight Plan Format in the NextGen Environment" by Christophe Masiero -

With the equipment mandate of 2020 under way, the FAA has recently postponed the transition to the ICAO flight plan format to the end of the year. Christophe Masiero will explain the rational (why) about this move in the NextGen/ADS-B context and provide an overview of the differences with the current domestic format (what). He will share about preparation and filing (how) with the new format using standard cases and examples in ForeFlight and Garmin Pilot applications.

Christophe Masiero is a Sales Executive with a global IT company and a 1400+h pilot holding a private pilot certificate, with Drone, Glider, Single Engine Land and Sea privileges and is Instrument Rated. He owns a Cessna Cardinal RG and belongs to several aviation groups like AOPA, EAA, SSA, SPA and is the current President of the Carolina Aero Club.
