

Seaplane Base - 'Ditching, Water Survival, and Why You May Need a New ELT'- 1:30 - 2:30

Robert Shafer is the Operations (Response) Department, Deputy Chief for the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary and will be discussing "Ditching, Water Survival, and Why You May Need a New ELT". If you ever find yourself flying over water, this presentation is a must. Learn how to manage the risks of flying over water and learn the skills you never want to use but you'd better know just in case.

Directions: See attached map for directions to the AirVenture Seaplane Base.
