

Hearing protection for pilots, what you need to know from the pros.

This event is sponsored in part by Sennheiser Aviation. During this discussion on different forms of hearing protection you will learn what it means to be protected. Protecting your hearing isn't just about using noise cancelling headsets. The Raviator will be the main presenter at this event <http://hub.am/1jry4iT>. The Director of Sennheiser aviation, Dave Dunlap will also be present for questions about their superior headsets. We would like to thank Dave and Sennheiser Aviation for the donation of our giveaway S1 Noise Cancelling headset.
