FAASTeam presents:

Ask the Pilot Examiners the Secrets to Pass the New FAA/ACS Private Pilot Practical Test
Join us for an entertaining and educational demonstration of a mock check-ride conducted by local examiners using a local CFI as the applicant. You will have the opportunity to review various parts of the ground portion and find ways to improve your (or your applicant’s) response. We will be using the new Private Pilot Airman Certification Standards (ACS) issued in June, 2017. Please bring your copy (click link below) for this review. However, elements of this test will apply to all practical tests.

There will be a demonstration of the greatly expanded risk management language and scenario testing now applied to this test. We will give you insight into how things sometimes go wrong and how to prevent these problems. You and your applicants will benefit from your firsthand knowledge of what we are thinking when using our plans of action. There will be many useful tips to create a positive, comfortable test environment for you and your students. Come meet the (and CFIs introduce your clients to the) DuPage FSDO pilot examiners. Representatives of the FAA will be on hand to offer their input and answer your questions, as well. The intent is to conduct a forum with a no-holds-barred, open discussion of questions you may have.
