

SBN ATCT Pilot-Controller Forum

This seminar features Erin Rausch, Air Traffic Manager at the South Bend Air Traffic Tower/TRACON. Erin brings a wealth of knowledge and experience as a controller, ATP rated pilot and flight instructor. She will give an overview of the South Bend airspace and services provided at the facility. Erin will also share tips on how best to communicate with air traffic control in order to receive the best possible service. A time for questions will follow her presentation.

Directions: For those flying in, park on the ramp in front of the administration building. Those driving to the event may park in the lot to the west of the administration building, located on the northwest side of the field.
