

Great Chicago FSDO, FAASTeam presents:

Winter Wisdom with Wipotnik - VMC Club at PWK by CEPA

Long-time PWK flight instructor Lou Wipotnik will offer an in-depth look at several winter topics, such as When pilots should pre-heat their aircraft's engine, as well as why and how. How should pilots deal with crosswinds and normal takeoffs and landings on slick runways? How pilots can identify and react to a tailplane stall. What a forecast can tell you about potential icing in the clouds

... and many other important winter weather issues.

Speaker bio:

Master CFI, CFII, MEI

Lou has earned his Master CFI designation for the 10th time, and was the 1996 National CFI of the Year. Holding the Master CFI designation continuously since 1998, in 2016 Lou was granted Master Instructor Emeritus (MIE) status with his induction into the Illinois Aviation Hall of Fame. This is recognition of his many years of commitment to excellence, professional growth, service to the aviation community, and quality aviation education. He has taught for several distinctive flying schools during his aviation career and has logged over 15,000 hours as PIC in over 59 years as a pilot. Lou also served in the Civil Air Patrol, flies Young Eagles, and is a FAAS Team Representative for the FAA's Greater
