

Making the Numbers

Discussion will be about strategies to maximize the success of each current flight when you consider all of the various Human, Aircraft Age and Maintenance, and Environmental, factors in total of their importance to the flight performance numbers.

Land Vehicles – General directions easily GPS obtained to Main entrance at Illinois State Route 53. Proceed Right turn onto University Pkwy West. Aviation Center will be 1st building on your passenger side as you turn South. Main entrance is the South Door next to parking lot. FAASTeam Seminar Sign will be posted for exact Classroom.

Aircraft – KLOT is a Class D Airport from 0700z – 2000z (8:00pm) local time. Request taxi to Lewis U. They should give you B taxiway to R9 which is then a non-movement area. Parking is anywhere marked along Aviation Center Building. The Entrance is the Harold White Dispatch Center circular building as you will notice as you enter the aircraft tie-down area.
