

The Relaxed IFR Pilot is a Playwright Part 2 - Michael Baraz - Chicago 99s Aviation Expo 2025

Event Details

Hopefully, if you're flying in the clouds, you've figured out one thing, instrument flying is nothing if not predictable... well, aside from the weather I suppose. And if the voice in your head says IMC means "I May Crash," well, you're in the right place to work out those anxieties. We're going to learn our lines and do a rehearsal. When you walk out of this session, you'll be ready for your audition!
