

ATC Was My Co-Pilot - Minnetta Gardinier - Chicago 99s Aviation Expo 2026

Event Details

On Sunday, November 3, 2024, she was making a "routine" return flight from a 99s International Board of Directors Meeting in Oklahoma City (OKC). After a 6.5-hour flight down to OKC with a 45-55kt headwind, she was enjoying a very speedy 3-hour return flight thanks to great tailwinds. All was going well until the approach into her home base Iowa City (IOW). She suddenly experienced spatial disorientation. Due to a variety of factors, she failed to establish on the final approach path and experienced a spin in clouds while turning out for another approach attempt into IOW, pulling out just a few hundred feet from the ground as she emerged from the clouds. Great ATC support from Cedar Rapids (CID) assisted her with re-establishing her control of the flight and making a safe landing at IOW.
