

Navigating the Skies- Essential Summer Weather Tips for Pilots

With summer approaching, it's crucial for pilots to prepare for the unique challenges posed by seasonal weather conditions. Learn how to safely navigate hazardous weather, including thunderstorms, low clouds, and high-density altitude situations. Understanding these conditions is vital.

So come join us to equip yourself with the knowledge and strategies to handle these challenges confidently, ensuring a smooth and secure flying experience throughout the summer months.

From I-55 go North on Weber Rd. to Clow International Pkwy. Turn left (west) and proceed to the Airport parking lot. Parking is available in this lot or go past the STOP sign and follow the taxiway to the parking lot on the far Northeast end. There are 2 brown signs to direct you to the Illinois Aviation Museum (IAM)

IAM is in the Northern most hangar facing the runway.
