

ARFF Station Operations at Quad Cities International Airport

This event offers a unique opportunity to delve into the critical role of Aircraft Rescue and Fire Fighting (ARFF) operations in aviation safety. Chief Swain will guide attendees through essential safety protocols and emergency response strategies at Quad Cities International Airport (QCIA). The session includes a discussion on the qualifications of ARFF personnel, emphasizing the expertise required for effective emergency management. Participants will tour the ARFF equipment and facilities, gaining insight into the team's preparedness. Real-life scenario discussions will provide practical learning experiences, promoting a strong safety culture. This presentation aims to enhance knowledge sharing and collaboration among aviation professionals, ultimately strengthening aviation safety.

As part of the Chapter 1702 monthly meeting, attendees will enjoy a light lunch before proceeding as a group to the ARFF facility for a presentation and tour.
