

EAA Ch 579 Monthly IMC/VMC Club

Using scenario based discussion techniques, this Seminar will feature a detailed discussion on the various critical Pilot decisions that are necessary to land safely while flying in Visual Meteorological Conditions (VMC) or Instrument Meteorological Conditions (IMC) or a combination of both weather conditions from both a Pilot and Controller's perspective with emphasis on FAA Topic of the Month - Angle of Attack Awareness. Anyone with the desire to enhance their flying confidence from this FAASTeam Seminar are encouraged to attend and participate.

Due to the lively discussions within our Seminars we try to maintain a 2 hour limit.
