

CFIA - Chicago Flight Instructor Association Monthly Meeting

All aviators are welcome: students, pilots, and instructors.

Alan and local instructors present on topics where examiners are finding deficiencies or timely events and discuss ways to fly, learn, instruct, and even think about flying.

Moderator: Alan Zielinski

DuPage Flight Center

2700 International Dr
3rd Floor Conference Room
West Chicago, IL

Alan is a well-known FAA Designated Pilot Examiner (DPE) and flight instructor for aircraft and balloons. As a single-engine and jet pilot, instructor, and examiner, he has over 11,000 hours of accident-free flying experience. He is one of us, an aviation addict, flying his own

Cessna Skyhawk XP and his clients' Cessna Citations, as well as gliders and balloons; clearly, Alan has a passion for flying! He is also the president of the Chicago Flight Instructor Association, advancing the knowledge, understanding, and capabilities of the local rank-and-file instructors.

If elevator access is restricted, ask a DuPage Flight Center staff member to badge you to the third-floor conference room.

Session is expected to be 2 hours.
