

Ohio Aviation Maintenance Symposium 2024

This event will bring together many of the over 600 IA's in Ohio. We will offer three classes at a time including a room for Keynote Topics, a room for Vendor Presentations and a room dedicated to Avionics related topics. Attendees will have the option to get 8 hours of training toward IA renewal on many new and exciting presentations. There will be Vendors in the hangar to answer questions and showcase their services and products.

This event is being held at Eastland Career Center at 4465 S. Hamilton Rd. in Groveport Ohio on the Southeast side of Columbus. From Hamilton Rd. at the light in front of the Career Center, take Director's Blvd. to the back of the complex. There is plenty of parking space all around the Main Career Center Building. The Engineering Technologies Center is a stand alone building at the rear of the complex which is where the event is held. Enter the front of this building to sign in for the event.
