

VMC Club Monthly Meeting

It's a short flight on a clear morning, departing just before sunrise. It's one of those mornings where things are running well and the tower controller has time to banter on the radio since the tower has just opened for the day. The only other traffic is an airplane on approach to a nearby airport—or so everyone thought. Now it's dead ahead and landing. You're on your takeoff roll about to rotate! Now What?

Meeting will be in the Riverview Airport Office common area. Fly-ins are welcome.
